ABOUT CHRIS TUCKER

Chris Tucker is an international award-winning actor and comedian best known for playing the role of Detective James Carter in the “Rush Hour” film series with Jackie Chan. He became a favorite on HBO’s “Def Comedy Jam” in the 1990s and came to prominence in the 1995 film cult classic “Friday,” starring alongside Ice Cube. In 1997, Tucker embarked on his first production as executive producer and co-starred in the hit movie “Money Talks” with Charlie Sheen and shortly after, appeared in Luc Besson’s highly successful “The Fifth Element.” Tucker co-starred in the 2013 Oscar-nominated film “Silver Linings Playbook” with Robert DeNiro, Jennifer Lawrence and Bradley Cooper. In 2015, his first standup film “Chris Tucker Live” was released exclusively on Netflix and marked the first project that Tucker has both starred in and produced through his company, Chris Tucker Entertainment. Tucker is also a humanitarian and spends much of his spare time traveling and working with his foundation. For more information, visit christucker.com.
