Tickets on sale May 27

PRIOR LAKE, Minn. – May 23, 2022 – Rapper Ludacris is bringing his hip hop hits to the Mystic Showroom stage at 8 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 24, 2022.

Rap's "Dirty South" movement broke nationwide in the late '90s and early 2000s and Ludacris rode it to immediate widespread popularity. He became arguably the most commercially successful Southern rapper of the time. The entirety of the aughts found the rapper scoring hit after mainstream hit with platinum-selling albums like "Word of Mouf" and "Chicken-N-Beer." He quickly became a multifaceted superstar, making multiple film and television appearances.

After getting his start working as an Atlanta disc jockey for Hot 97.5, he released an independent album "Incognegro." It sold well enough to break the Billboard 200, gaining him a record contract with Def Jam. The album's lead single, "What's Your Fantasy?," became a major hit and the follow-up single, "Southern Hospitality," also topped the charts.

His follow-up album, "Word of Mouf," was an even greater success for Ludacris including some of his most popular singles, "Area Codes," "Rollout (My Business)," "Saturday (Oooh Oooh!)," and "Welcome to Atlanta." The following year Ludacris appeared in the film "2 Fast 2 Furious" and released his third album, "Chicken-N-Beer." It reached number one on the Billboard 200 and brought with it another series of hits, including the Hot 100 number one "Stand Up" and "Splash Waterfalls." Ludacris continued his success with hit albums, "The Red Light District" and "Disturbing Tha Peace." After adding more acting roles to his résumé, Ludacris returned in 2017 with the singles "Vitamin D" with Ty Dolla $ign and "Vices." In 2020, the new single "Found You" arrived featuring artist Chance the Rapper. For more information, visit ludaversal.com.
