PRIOR LAKE, Minn. – Feb. 7, 2022 – Renowned for their legendary ability to convey the complete Pink Floyd experience, The Australian Pink Floyd Show is bringing their “All That’s To Come 2022 World Tour” to the Mystic Showroom at 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 8, 2022. The popular tribute band is returning to the Mystic Showroom after a nearly sold-out show in 2019.

Selling over four million tickets worldwide and described by The Times as “The Gold Standard” and The Daily Mirror as “The Kings of the Genre,” The Australian Pink Floyd Show (TAPFS) gave its first-ever concert in Adelaide, Australia, in 1988. Since then, they have performed in over 35 countries worldwide, played at David Gilmour’s 50th birthday celebration, and were even joined on stage by Rick Wright. TAPFS is the leading and biggest show of its kind in the world.

Performing the music of Pink Floyd with note for note perfection, this critically acclaimed show has been astonishing audiences worldwide for more than three decades. Always striving to reproduce the complete Pink Floyd experience and bring the music to new audiences, the show continues to include a stunning light and laser show, video animations, state-of-the-art, high-resolution LED screen technology, and other special effects. In addition, and in true Pink Floyd fashion, there are several huge inflatables including a giant pig and their own unique Pink Kangaroo.

They have worked with Pink Floyd touring musicians like Guy Pratt, Durga McBroom and her sister Lorelei McBroom, as well as sound engineer Colin Norfield who worked with Pink Floyd during their “Division Bell” tour and on David Gilmour’s solo tours.

Often described as being much more than a tribute band, The Australian Pink Floyd Show is the first Pink Floyd tribute show that took the concept into the worldwide arena circuit. The band has played to sold-out audiences throughout Europe, UK, America, Canada, South America and Russia. With over 30 years of history, the world’s biggest, best and greatest Pink Floyd tribute show continues to delight its global fan base. For more information, visit aussiefloyd.com.
