BUDDY GUY AND JOHN HIATT & THE GONERS
FEATURING SONNY LANDRETH
ARE COMING TO THE MYSTIC SHOWROOM JULY 24

Tickets on sale March 25

PRIOR LAKE, Minn. – March 24, 2022 – Legendary blues musicians Buddy Guy and John Hiatt & The Goners featuring Sonny Landreth are coming to the Mystic Showroom at 8 p.m. Sunday, July 24, 2022.

Illustrious blues artist Buddy Guy released his 18th solo LP, “The Blues Is Alive and Well”, showcasing his raw and unadulterated sound; its 15 tracks a true pleasure for aficionados and genre newcomers alike.

It only takes one listen to the new album to realize that Guy's mission has been more than accomplished here. At the 2016 Grammys, he picked up a trophy for “Best Blues Album” and that same year he hit the road for a U.S. tour opening for Jeff Beck. In addition to bringing the house down for a recent sold-out performance commemorating the closing of B.B. King's Blues Club and Grill, he recently appeared on David Letterman's Netflix talk show, “My Next Guest Needs No Introduction.”

“The Blues Is Alive and Well” has 15 tracks featuring pristine production without losing the signature lived-in grit that Guy's been known for his entire career, from the low-slung riffage of “Bad Day” to the squealing solos of “Somebody Up There.” Guy sounds every bit as vital and youthful here as he did back to his early collaborations with the late Junior Wells, and it's inspiring to hear a veteran artist laying down the blues with such gusto.

John Hiatt & The Goners will also be performing his mix of New Age, blues and country in the Mystic Showroom. John Hiatt is one of America's most respected and influential singer/songwriters. Since 2000, he's been on a remarkable late-career run, releasing nine acclaimed studio albums and embarking on numerous tours in the U.S. and abroad.
