Alter Bridge has steadily climbed to the forefront of hard rock worldwide. They've exceeded all expectations and benchmarks with over a billion streams, millions of units sold, glowing critical acclaim, real estate on the covers of "Classic Rock Magazine" and "Guitar World," and storied sets at Royal Albert Hall, the O2 Arena and Download Festival.

The band consists of Myles Kennedy (vocals/guitar), Mark Tremonti (guitar/vocals), Brian Marshall (bass) and Scott Phillips (drums). Their 2004 debut LP "One Day Remains" bowed in the Top 5 of the Billboard Top 200 and went gold.

In 2007, "Blackbird's" title track was voted the Greatest Guitar Solo of All Time by "Guitarist Magazine." The album also went gold in the United Kingdom. Critical plaudits surrounded the 2013 opus "Fortress" with 5-out-of-5 stars from "KERRANG!" and "Total Guitar."

2016's "The Last Hero" saw the band return to the Top 10 on the Top 200. 2019's "Walk The Sky" made impressions around the globe when it reached No. 1 on the US Billboard Top Albums, Top 200 Alternative Albums, Top 200 Hard Rock Albums and Top 20 Rock Albums charts as well as No. 1 on Canada's Top Hard Music Albums Chart. The album hit No. 1 on the Swiss Album charts, landed in the Top 5 on the Canada, UK, Germany, Austria and Scotland charts and made "Loudwire's" list of The 50 Best Rock Albums of 2019.

2022's "Pawns & Kings" is the culmination of almost two decades together soaked in blood, sweat, tears and the triumph earned through never giving up. It represents the bandmates dedication to one another and their collective devotion to a devout fanbase. For more information, visit alterbridge.com.
