ABOUT SUGARLAND

Since the band’s inception in 2002, the Grammy award-winning pair Jennifer Nettles and Kristian Bush of Sugarland have sold nearly 10 million albums domestically. The Georgia natives released their album “Bigger” in June 2018, their first project together in nearly six years, through a joint venture with Big Machine Records and UMG Nashville. The 11-song album was co-produced by Nettles and Bush and included the hit single “Babe,” featuring Taylor Swift. Sugarland have also earned seven No.1 singles to date and have amassed more than 330 million on-demand streams. Their critical and mainstream appeal have been magnified with industry accolades – five consecutive CMA Awards for Vocal Duo of the Year (2007-2011), five ACM Awards (including Song of the Year and Single of the Year), and Grammy Awards for Best Country Performance by a Duo or Group with Vocals and Best Country Song for “Stay.” For more information, visit sugarlandmusic.com.

ABOUT TENILLE TOWNES

Emerging country music artist Tenille Townes has an organic nature with the ability to tell a story and emote it through the visceral range of her vocals – tender, bluesy, wise and full of wonder, but never naive. A Canadian native now based in Nashville, Townes released her first album “Real” in 2011, which included the single “Real Me,” and her second album “Light” in 2013. Her hit single “Somebody’s Daughter” was released in 2018; she was also the opening act that year for Miranda Lambert and Little Big Town’s joint “The Bandwagon” tour.
