The sequel, "Blue Collar Comedy Tour Rides Again," has sold more than three million units since its release in 2004.

Foxworthy has voiced numerous characters in different animated films, including Handy Smurf in "The Smurfs" and "Smurfs 2." He was also the voice of Reggie the Rooster in the Warner Bros. film "Racing Stripes."

His book "The Redneck Dictionary" was released in 2005 and is based on the popular words of the south Foxworthy recounts in his stand-up act. The book made it to No. 2 on the New York Times Bestseller List. "The Redneck Dictionary II" was released in 2006 and was also a New York Times Bestseller along with 2008's "How to Really Stink at Golf."

Foxworthy has an HBO special and two Showtime specials to his credit. With critical acclaim and rave reviews from the first special, the comic landed his second Showtime special, which earned a Cable ACE Award nomination. He has also been bestowed with a People's Choice Award as Favorite Male Newcomer for "The Jeff Foxworthy Show."

The comedian's final solo comedy CD, "Have Your Loved Ones Spayed or Neutered," contains all new material debuting at No. 1 on the Billboard Comedy Charts and becoming Foxworthy's second highest selling album debut. For more information, visit jefffoxworthy.com.
