STEVE MILLER BAND
ARE COMING TO THE MYSTIC AMPHITHEATER AUG. 6

Tickets on sale May 19

PRIOR LAKE, Minn. – May 15, 2023 – Rock and Roll Hall of Famers the Steve Miller Band are coming to the Mystic Amphitheater at 8 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 6.

Steve Miller has been an enlivening presence on the American music scene for more than half a century. He has sold tens of millions of records and his songs have been streamed several billion times. His “Greatest Hits 1974-78,” album received the Recording Industry Association of America’s Diamond Award. With sales of more than 15 million copies, it is among the 25 bestselling albums of all time.

With albums like “Children of the Future,” “Sailor” and “Brave New World,” Miller perfected a psychedelic blues sound that drew on the deepest sources of American roots music and simultaneously articulated a compelling vision of what music could be in the years to come.

In the '70s, Miller crafted a brand of pure pop that was smart, polished, exciting and irresistible. He dominated radio with hits like “The Joker,” “Take the Money and Run,” “Rock’n Me,” “Fly Like an Eagle,” “Jet Airliner,” “Jungle Love,” “Swingtown” and “Abracadabra.” To this day, his songs are instantly recognizable and impossible not to sing along with.

In recent years, Miller has fully immersed himself in the blues and its many byways. As he has always done, he continues to find creative outlets for the full range of his musical passions. On his successful tours with the Steve Miller Band, he complements the commercial peaks of his extensive catalogue with lesser-known songs that expand his fans’ awareness of the range of his work.

Miller was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2016 and was elected into the Songwriters Hall of Fame in 2022. For more information, visit stevemillerband.com.
