

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SECOND SHOW ADDED:
MATT MATHEWS: BOUJEE ON A BUDGET TOUR
COMING TO MYSTIC LAKE JUNE 17

Tickets on sale Feb. 18

PRIOR LAKE, Minn. – Feb. 17, 2026 – Due to popular demand, Matt Mathews has added a second stop at Mystic Lake. In addition to his previously announced show at the venue on June 18, Mathews will also perform in the Mystic Showroom at 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 17, 2026.

Comedian Matt Mathews is as real as it gets. Born-and-raised in Alabama, Mathews began performing stand-up in 2022 and quickly began headlining his own shows. His tours, including the When That Thang Get Ta Thang'n tour and the more recent Boujee On A Budget tour, have sold out venues across the country. Whether drawing from life experiences growing up gay in the South, or his never-ending farm chores that have endeared him to millions of fans around the world, be prepared: a Matt Mathews show is gonna be wild, real and dirty! Nothing is off limits.

ABOUT MATT MATHEWS

Matt Mathews is a comedian, singer/songwriter and unapologetic trailblazer whose blend of raw honesty, quick wit and Southern charm has made him one of comedy's fastest-rising stars. Born and raised in Birmingham, Alabama, Mathews first captured attention during the pandemic with viral "farm chore" videos that showcased his humor and authenticity, quickly building a devoted following of more than 12 million fans and generating over a billion views across social media.

What began as a playful diversion from his full-time career as a boudoir photographer soon ignited into a new path in stand-up comedy. Within months of his first performance in 2022, Mathews was headlining his own shows and embarking on his first national tour. Today, his Live Nation-promoted Boujee On A Budget Tour has grown into a blockbuster, with more than 150,000 tickets sold and stops at major venues including multiple shows at Nashville's historic Ryman Auditorium and his first-ever arena show in his hometown of Birmingham.

Mathews' comedy is deeply rooted in his life experiences—whether as a farmer, barrel racer, photographer, proud Alabamian or LGBTQ+ voice pushing boundaries in the entertainment industry. He creates a space where audiences can forget the noise of the outside world and simply laugh. His work has earned him recognition from Deadline, who named him among the “Future of Comedy,” and from The Advocate, which celebrated the unique path he has paved in both comedy and entertainment.

In addition to comedy, Mathews is pursuing his longtime passion for music. Encouraged by friend Jewel to take the leap, he began working with producer Stanton Edward (The Wallflowers, Jewel) on his debut album, a mix of country and folk influences shaped by his Alabama roots and personal storytelling. The project follows early releases like “What a War” and “Joke’s On Me,” showcasing a new layer of artistry from a performer unafraid to bare it all.

Whether on stage, on the farm, or in the recording studio, Matt Mathews is proving himself to be much more than a comedian—he’s a fearless entertainer and storyteller redefining what it means to be boujee on a budget. For tour dates, music updates, and more, visit mattmathews.com.
