MAMMOTH – THE END TOUR
WITH SPECIAL GUEST 10 YEARS
IS COMING TO MYSTIC LAKE APRIL 4

Tickets on sale Dec. 5

PRIOR LAKE, Minn. – Dec. 2, 2025 – Prepare to rock when Mammoth brings The End Tour to the Mystic Showroom with special guest 10 Years at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, April 4, 2026.

Grammy-nominated songwriter, vocalist, multi-instrumentalist and producer Wolfgang Van Halen continues to define Mammoth as one of hard rock's breakout stories of the 2020s. Built on his multi-instrumental mastery and arena-sized melodic instincts, Mammoth's music has cultivated a passionate global fan base and established them as a rare new-generation success.

Their 2021 debut, "Mammoth," entered the Billboard 200 at No. 12 and hit No. 1 on the Top Hard Rock Albums, Top Independent Albums and Top Rock Albums charts. Breakout single "Distance" became the first of two No. 1 Rock Radio hits and earned a Grammy nomination for Best Rock Song. 2023's "Mammoth II" continued the momentum, debuting in the top five of the Billboard Top Album Sales chart and returning the band to No. 1 on the Top Hard Rock Albums chart. Both albums received acclaim from "Rolling Stone," "Guitar World," Grammy.com, "Classic Rock," "American Songwriter," "Kerrang!" and more.

Mammoth, which includes Van Halen with guitarists Jon Jourdan and Frank Sidoris, bassist Ronnie Ficarro and drummer Garret Whitlock is touring in support of their third album, "The End." The 10-track album showcases Van Halen's continued evolution as a songwriter and performer. As with his previous releases, Van Halen wrote every song and performed all instrumentation and vocals, pushing himself further than he did on his debut and sophomore albums.

ABOUT MAMMOTH

From the hypnotic opening of “One of a Kind” to the infectious closer “All in Good Time,” “The End” highlights Van Halen’s growing range and musical identity. Tracks such as “Happy,” “Something New” and “Selfish” slot seamlessly alongside fan favorites already central to Mammoth’s live show.

The album cycle began with a chart-topping lead single released in May, accompanied by a standout music video—a reimagining of the cult classic “From Dusk Till Dawn”—directed by Robert Rodriguez and Greg Nicotero. The clip has surpassed five million views and features appearances by Danny Trejo, Slash, Myles Kennedy, and Van Halen’s mother, Valerie Bertinelli. Follow-up single “The Spell,” now Top 10 at Active Rock radio, has crossed six million views, while the video for “I Really Wanna” drew strong critical and fan response upon its release.

Mammoth toured globally with Metallica and Pantera, supported Guns N’ Roses and the Foo Fighters and sold out headline dates around the world. They’ve appeared on “Jimmy Kimmel Live!” and performed at the MusiCares 2024 gala honoring Jon Bon Jovi. Van Halen also joined the stage for the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame induction of Ozzy Osbourne. ABOUT 10 YEARS

For nearly two decades, 10 Years have quietly pushed themselves and modern rock towards evolution. The hard rock trio consists of Jesse Hasek (vocals), Brian Vodinh (guitar/drums) and Matt Wantland (guitar/synth programming). Their hit song “Wasteland” went Gold and reached No. 1 at Active Rock Radio and the Billboard Alternative Songs Chart. They have sold out countless headline shows and toured with everyone from Korn, Deftones and Stone Sour to Chris Cornell and Linkin Park. For more information, visit 10yearsmusic.com.
