RISE AGAINST
WITH SPECIAL GUESTS DESTROY BOYS AND KOYO
COMING TO MYSTIC LAKE MARCH 18

Tickets on sale Jan. 16

PRIOR LAKE, Minn. – Jan. 12, 2026 – Prepare to rock when Rise Against performs in the Mystic Showroom with special guests Destroy Boys and Koyo at 7 p.m. Wednesday, March 18, 2026.

Few bands have ever been as accurately named as the Chicago punk quartet Rise Against. The band includes vocalist and rhythm guitarist Tim McIlrath, lead guitarist Zach Blair, bassist Joe Principe and drummer Brandon Barnes. While fleeting styles and fashionable imitations have entered and exited vogue, they have remained a north star of artful resistance.

Rise Against is best known for hit songs like “Savior,” “Prayer of the Refugee,” “Satellite,” “Give It All” and “Swing Life Away.” While continuously updating their formula, they’ve sustained their original spirit of rebellion over a quarter century. They have amassed a body of work that doubles as a chronicle of our collective unraveling. Melodic hardcore detonations coexist in perfect tension with dire warnings about the looming dystopia.

On their newest album, “Ricochet,” McIlrath’s lyrics navigate many of the most pressing crises of the moment, offering unerring righteousness without sanctimony and empathy without letting malefactors off the hook. They cover apocalyptic scenarios (“Black Crown”) and false promises sold to the youth (“Gold Long Gone”), the necessity of resisting blind allegiance (“Soldier”), mental health (“Sink Like a Stone”) and the sensationalism of the algorithmic entertainment-industrial complex (“State of Emergency”). Throughout it all, there is a cautious optimism for real lasting change. For more information, visit riseagainst.com.

DESTROY BOYS

Punk rock might have been the force that brought Destroy Boys together, but it’s far from the only touchstone for their music. From their first record through the beginning of their fourth, they have continued to write and sing about what they know. School drama and elitist cliques encountered in their teens have given way to the pain of relationships and the inherent feelings of misunderstanding and isolation that are all too common for young people navigating a hybrid of physical and digital worlds.

ABOUT KOYO

Since forming in 2020, every single second of music recorded by Koyo has been completely and utterly genuine. Formed in Long Island, New York by five childhood friends who grew up together—vocalist Joseph Chiaramonte, guitarists Harold Griffin and TJ Rotolico, bassist Stephen Spanos and drummer Salvatore Argento—Koyo’s music is the sound of Stony Brook summers flipping between Taking Back Sunday and Silent Majority while driving to the beach, living in songs that feel just like home.
