EVERCLEAR – LUCKY 7 TOUR
WITH AMERICAN HI-FI
COMING TO MYSTIC LAKE NOV. 15

Tickets on sale May 19

PRIOR LAKE, Minn. – May 18, 2026 – Prepare to rock when Everclear brings their Lucky 7 Tour to the Mystic Showroom with American Hi-Fi at 7 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 15, 2026.

Everclear, one of the defining alternative rock bands to emerge from the '90s—led by vocalist, guitarist and founder Art Alexakis—has announced The Lucky 7 Tour featuring special guests American Hi-Fi.

New for this year's annual fall outing: fans will be voting for their favorite songs from Everclear's extensive, three-decade-long catalog to be included in the setlist. In addition to their beloved hits like "Father of Mine" and "Santa Monica," the Top 7 most requested songs in each city will be played at that night's show. Vote now at everclear.set.fan.

Since forming in 1992, Everclear has enjoyed a lengthy career by any measure, spanning 11 studio releases, including four that have been certified Gold or Platinum, selling over six million records and achieving 12 Top 40 hit singles on mainstream rock, alternative and adult Top 40 radio. This includes "Santa Monica," "Father of Mine," "I Will Buy You A New Life," "Wonderful" and "Everything To Everyone," as well as numerous videos, thousands of shows and various other accolades, including a 1998 Grammy nomination.

The band's 1993 debut album, "World Of Noise," was released on the Portland independent label Tim/Kerr Records. Paired with their significant efforts to break into college radio, the buzz they'd created within the Portland music scene attracted the attention of major labels, including Capitol Records, which signed the group soon after. Beginning with their major label debut, 1995's Platinum-selling album "Sparkle and Fade," and its massive chart-topping hit "Santa Monica," Everclear was soon a household name and catapulted into the masses. ABOUT EVERCLEAR

To celebrate the band's 30th anniversary in 2022, Everclear reissued "World Of Noise" as a special remastered, deluxe edition, making the album available for the first time on digital streaming platforms with six bonus songs in addition to its original 12 tracks. Adding to the celebrations that year, Everclear released a commemorative anniversary video, "Everclear – 30 Years Gone: A Retrospective," hosted by former MTV VJ, current radio host and longtime friend Matt Pinfield.

In 2023, Everclear released their first official live album, "Live at The Whisky a Go Go," showcasing the band's acclaimed and energetic live performances. The 17-track collection features the live recording of the Los Angeles show on Everclear's 30th Anniversary Tour, showcasing the hits and hidden treasures from throughout the band's extraordinary catalog as well as two new bonus studio tracks: "Sing Away" and their 2022 politically charged single "Year of the Tiger."

Continuing to celebrate their acclaimed career and provide the band's dedicated fanbase with long-awaited content, Everclear released their Platinum-selling album, "Songs From An American Movie Vol. One" on vinyl for the first time ever in 2024 via Intervention Records. They released the "Sparkle and Fade 30th Anniversary Remastered Deluxe Edition" in 2025 on vinyl and streaming platforms via Universal Music Group, an expanded edition featuring bonus content pulled from the vault.

In addition to his thousands of Everclear performances over the band's lengthy career, Alexakis released his first solo album, "Sun Songs," in 2019. That same year, Alexakis revealed his diagnosis with multiple sclerosis and has since donated one dollar from every ticket purchased for his performances to charities such as the Sweet Relief Musicians Fund and the National MS Society. The now 64-year-old shows no signs of slowing down and more than three decades later, Everclear's enduring legacy and ongoing appeal as a live band continue.

ABOUT AMERICAN HI-FI

American Hi-Fi's hit "Flavor of the Weak," recently surpassed 100 million streams on Spotify, and the self-titled debut album it came from celebrates its 25th anniversary this year. With six studio albums and two live records, led by Stacy Jones, the band is rounded out by Jamie Arentzen on guitar, Drew Parsons on bass and Neal Daniels on drums. Their music became the soundtrack to a generation, with songs featured in smash hits like the "American Pie" franchise, "Freaky Friday" and "Superman Returns," plus fan-favorite shows like "Dawson's Creek," "Malcolm in the Middle" and the iconic video game "Guitar Hero."
