ABOUT TOWER OF POWER
For 58 years, Tower of Power has delivered the best in funk and soul music. “Bump City,” their 1972 debut, was a hit on both the Billboard 200 and the R&B Albums chart. It netted them the hits “You’re Still a Young Man” and “Down to The Nightclub.” The ‘70s were a boom period with radio classics like “So Very Hard to Go” and “What Is Hip?”. The band has continued to tour and record over the years.

They have traveled the world, enjoying hit singles on their own and backing legendary artists including Otis Redding, Elton John, Santana, The Grateful Dead, John Lee Hooker, Aerosmith, Bonnie Raitt and countless others. In the process they have defined an Oakland soul sound as instantly recognizable as those from Detroit, as well as inspirations like Memphis and Philadelphia.

The future of Tower of Power is set out to be vigorous and dynamic and will prove to be just that for fans around the world starved for the band’s groove just the way Tower of Power likes it! For more information, visit towerofpower.com.

ABOUT WAR
Multi-platinum-selling WAR, the original street band, has been sharing its timeless music and message of brotherhood and harmony for over five decades before millions across the globe.

WAR has sold more than 50 million records since its formation, including 10 Billboard Top 10 hits. Top 40 hits include the timeless classics “Why Can’t We Be Friends,” “Low Rider,” “The World Is A Ghetto,” “The Cisco Kid” and many more.

In 1970, producer Jerry Goldstein united the seven-piece band with former Animals lead singer Eric Burdon. The alliance produced the No. 1 worldwide hit “Spill the Wine.” Stepping out on their own in 1971, they launched a fruitful career with a dynamic sound that fused R&B, rock, Latin music, jazz and blues. In 1973, their smash album “The World is a Ghetto” vaulted to No. 1 on Billboard’s pop and R&B charts.

Fifteen of WAR’s albums have achieved gold status in the U.S. and many of them have gone multi-platinum, including “Eric Burdon Declares War,” “Black Man’s Burdon,” “All Day Music,” “WAR Live,” “The World Is A Ghetto,” “Deliver The Word,” “Why Can’t We Be Friends,” “Greatest Hits,” “Platinum Jazz,” “Galaxy,” “The Music Band” and “The Best of WAR and More.”

WAR has not only sealed their status as a household name but has also proven that their music and messages continue to be as relevant as ever today as they have always been. For more information, visit war.com.
